1958

After the end of the Chinese National Chess Championship Final in December 1958, the three Soviet chess masters visited China, they were Boris Baranov, Mamadzhan Mukhitdinov and Alexander Grushevsky. They met top three finishers of Chinese National Chess Championship in Cultural Garden, Guangzhou. The Chinese lost all three games. In the game Grushevsky-Xian Quan (later know as Sin Kuen after leaving to Hong Kong) the Chinese had good winning chances in the middlegame but blundered badly and lost. The USSR team then went to Shanghai and Hohhot, where they met local chess players and they beat all Chinese players too.
